Brief history of Monongalia County West Virginia:

1753 - The first white settlers, Dr. Thomas Eckarly and two brothers were said to have camped for a time on a stream later called Dunkard Creek. They are thought to have been murdered by Indians near Cheat River where they had relocated.

1758 - The first settlement in Monongalia County was attempted by a man named Decker and others, possibly members of his own family. The following fall the settlement was destroyed and the people murdered by Indians.

1761 - Four deserters from Fort Pitt fled south and camped for a time in territory that later was a part of Monongalia County.

1768 - At the approximate site of present Morgantown, a party of pioneers, among whom according to tradition was one or more by the name of Morgan, established a wilderness home.

1776 - Monongalia County established.

* * *

McLean County Kentucky:

1788 - first fort established, called Fort Vienna, where Calhoun Kentucky presently stands

1854 - The County of McLean was established; Muhlenberg, Daviess, and Ohio Counties furnished the territory

McLean County was named after Judge Alney McLean, a native of Burke County North Carolina

Kentucky, comes from an Indian name "Kentuckee" and is thought to mean " land of tomorrow." In the extreme southeastern corner is the Cumberland Gap, a mountain pass through which poured many of the early settlers of Kentucky and the other states of the Old Northwest. " The Dark and Bloody Ground" was the name by which the Indians referred to Kentucky; the land, a thickly forested wilderness, was for them an important hunting preserve. The last battle of the Revolution was fought in Kentucky at Blue Lick Springs in 1782. Kentucky became the first state beyond the Alleghenies on June 1, 1792.

EVERLY FAMILY, KY - W.Va.

The following history of the Everly's of West Virginia and Kentucky is a compilation of information from various sources; Census Records, Family members, Wills, Pension Applications, Genealogists, Cemetary Records, Land Warrants.

As with any attempt to document a family history that covers a long span of time, there are many problems with presenting the correct data; erroneous entries as to dates of birth, death, marriage, and children. The repetition of given names, and the intermarriage of family members, also with similiar given names created the most difficult area of confusion. In many instances, the passage of time has faded memories about certain events that occurred in the past as recalled by family members.

The history covered here, is in all probability etched with many errors, even as the result of this writer's attempt in recording. Hopefully, with the continued contributions of those who possess documentation, or remember certain facts pertaining to the family, these errors will be corrected. Any unpleasant facts will not be left out as they are a part of all family relationships, and represent the frailty of human nature.

Our story begins with Casper/Jasper Everley, who at present, is the earliest recorded member of this particular branch of the Everly family.

At a Court held for monongalia County, December term 1800, this writing which is supposed to be the last will and testament of CASPER EVERLY, was produced in Court and Several witnesses being thereupon severally sworn and examined upon hearing whose testimony the opinion of the Court was that the same be recorded. Teste: J. Evans Tom Jackson, Clerk, Monongalia County Court, W. VA

DEED ABSTRACT TO CASPER EVERLY

Know ye that in consideration of the sum of sixty pounds paid by CASPER EVERLY into the Treasury of this Commonwealth, there is granted by the said Commonwealth into the said * CASPER EVERLY a certain tract or parcel of land containing one hundred acres by survey bearing date the fifteenth day of October one Thousand seven-Hundred and eighty one, on a Preemption Treasury Warrant number thirteen hundred and ninety four. signed Benjamin Harrison.

EXCERPTS FROM PAPERS OF MARTHA C. BELL:

The following notations from Mrs. Bell's short Everly history are actual documentation, therefore the topics covered are random.

"The May 1806 Term of the Monongalia Court shows a complaint (against will) by JAMES RAMSEY and REBECCA EVERLY, his wife, MARY EVERLY of: SIMEON, WILLIAM, SAMUEL, LEVI JENNINGS and REBECCA EVERLY, his wife, WILLIAM MARTIN and ELIZABETH EVERLY, his wife, WILLIAM OWINGS and CHARLOTTE EVERLY, his wife, children, heirs and legal representatives of CASPER EVERLY, late of Monongalia County, deceased. In this complaint, we find the only reference, by name, of CASPER'S wife. Her name appears as, SARAH."

"Marguerite Somers of California, in a letter dated september of 1970, states this interesting thing;

"I have a string of beads that belonged to Casper Everly's mother, and were a wedding present from her husband. My father received them from his father and gave them to my Mother, on their wedding day. She saved them and when she died, my Grandmother put them in her bank box and when she died I got them.

I asked the Bank of America Trust Department for the name of a jewelry appraiser and he in turn recommended a specific jeweler for the work I wanted done. I had them knotted between each bead, so they could never be lost.

The apraiser (with Bryant's of Pomona) said they were made before 1700, probably in Rome by one of the craftsman in the Vatican that made jewelry for the nobility of Europe. They were blue (deep) glass with gold flakes in, and are very heavy. The dating of them before 1700 was that after that time a new method of making making glass beads was invented, and they started using gold flakes instead of little pieces of gold. He cut, quartered and then crushed one of the beads to analyze it. He recommended a figure for appraisal that astounded me, and therefore I made sure they were covered by insurance. One of the strings, I gave to our daughter Jo Ann, for a wedding present and the other I keep in our bank box. It will belong to our daughter, Dorthy."

"This large body of citizens gathered here today September 2, 1928, testifying to the debts of gratitude they owe one of the earliest pioneers of this valley shows that CASPER EVERLY is not forgotten even though for over a century the grass has covered his mortal form, sleeping in the valley he loved so well; but that his memory is held in loving rememberance by the people and his descendants in this region which he had so prominent a part in making.

CASPER EVERLY who is one of the many we honor here today, emigrated from * England to this New World so he might establish a new home in the land of the Alleghenies. He seems to have first settled in Virginia about the middle of the seventeenth century.

At this time Virginia gave to every bona fide settler who built a log cabin West of the Alleghenies and raised a crop of corn before 1778 a title to 400 acres of land and a pre-emption of these settlement rights. The certificate with the surveyors plat was sent to the Land Office at Richmond, and in six months if no caveat was offered, the patent was issued and the title was complete. There was previous to the settlement right, a right which was no right in law, called the "tomahawk Right." A hunter would deaden a few trees about a spring and cut his name in the bark of others, and then claimed the land in after years. Some land owners paid them a trifle to get rid of them, others did not. The settlement right to 400 acres was certified to and a certificate issued upon payment of ten shillings per one hundred acres.

* Writer's note: Several statements made in the above narrative are not proven fact, however should not be discounted until research is completed. All family stories relating to Casper's origin from the Everly's of Kentucky state that he came from Germany.

Continuation of excerpts from Marqurite Everly John:

The cost of the Certificate was two shillings and six pence. CASPER EVERLY, who was lured on by the beauty of the Monongahela (River) and serene hills along its banks, took advantage of the Virginian offer and settled in the very shadow of the spot where we now dwell. History tells us he located near Van Voorhis, John Madison and Colonel Samuel Hanway, who were among the first Monogahela County surveyors sent to survey the Casper Everly property and adjoining farms. Madison and his companions were ambushed and killed by the Indians. Colonel Hanway and his men escaped. Colonel Samuel Hanway was one of the five surveyors (then called trustees) who were appointed by the General Assembly of Virginia, 1785, to divide into lots the fifty acres of land (property of Zacquil Morgan) into one-half acres with convenient streets which was to be called Morgan's town, now Morgantown, (found in Henins' Statue at Large vol. 12, 0 212) Casper Everly's survey and Will were among the first to be filed in monongalia County.

CASPER EVERLY had the spirit of the pioneer, the settler, the seeker for newlands, the founder of new civilizations. He was a rugged man, not to be daunted by vast obstacles that would have conquered a less indomitable and courageous soul. Neither savage foes nor wild animals, nor the perils of the unknown, nor lonliness could turn him back from the unbroken wilderness where he sought a new freedom in a primitive land. He was an amazing example of vision, or purpose, of Christian service, of unselfishness, of struggle, of endurance. He and his associates were hardy souls, daring, intrepid men and women, filled with the very spirit of adventure.

But it was not adventure alone that impelled them to abandon the comforts of civilization, to break the ties of friendship and kinship, and to forego the solace of companions. In the heart of every man and woman who joined these early pilgrimages was something more than adventure, something more than daring. There was a vision of a great country which they were beginning to found, a great civilization they were to build, a home they were to create, not for themselves alone but for the posterity to come. I like to think that the early settlers of this region had a real vision of their country's future growth and greatness; that they visioned in their minds eye the wildernesses and wastes transformed into bustling cities and growing fields. And more than this, they visioned a great movement in which equality should be for all the masses, in which man might worship God as he would without outside dictation.

Casper Everly died about 1800. The name CASPER EVERLY is mentioned in the "Report of 1812 on Manuscript in the Virginia State Library at Richmond, Virginia, in regard to Revolutionary services of Virginia Soldiers." by Eckenrode, at page 39. He served 131 days, for which he received 12 pounds, 15 shillings and 6 pence. As will be shown in a Manuscript Book on file in the Arcives Department of said Virginia State Library known as "Pitts" which is a copy of the payrolls of these soldiers of the Virginia Line who received their pay at Pittsburgh.

Continuation of excerpts from Marguerite Everly John:

The name of CASPER EVERLY appears on the Roll of Captain David Scott, as will be shown from a Certificate made by Mrs. E.D. Gibson on the 21st day of November 1929, and hereto attached on one copy hereof.

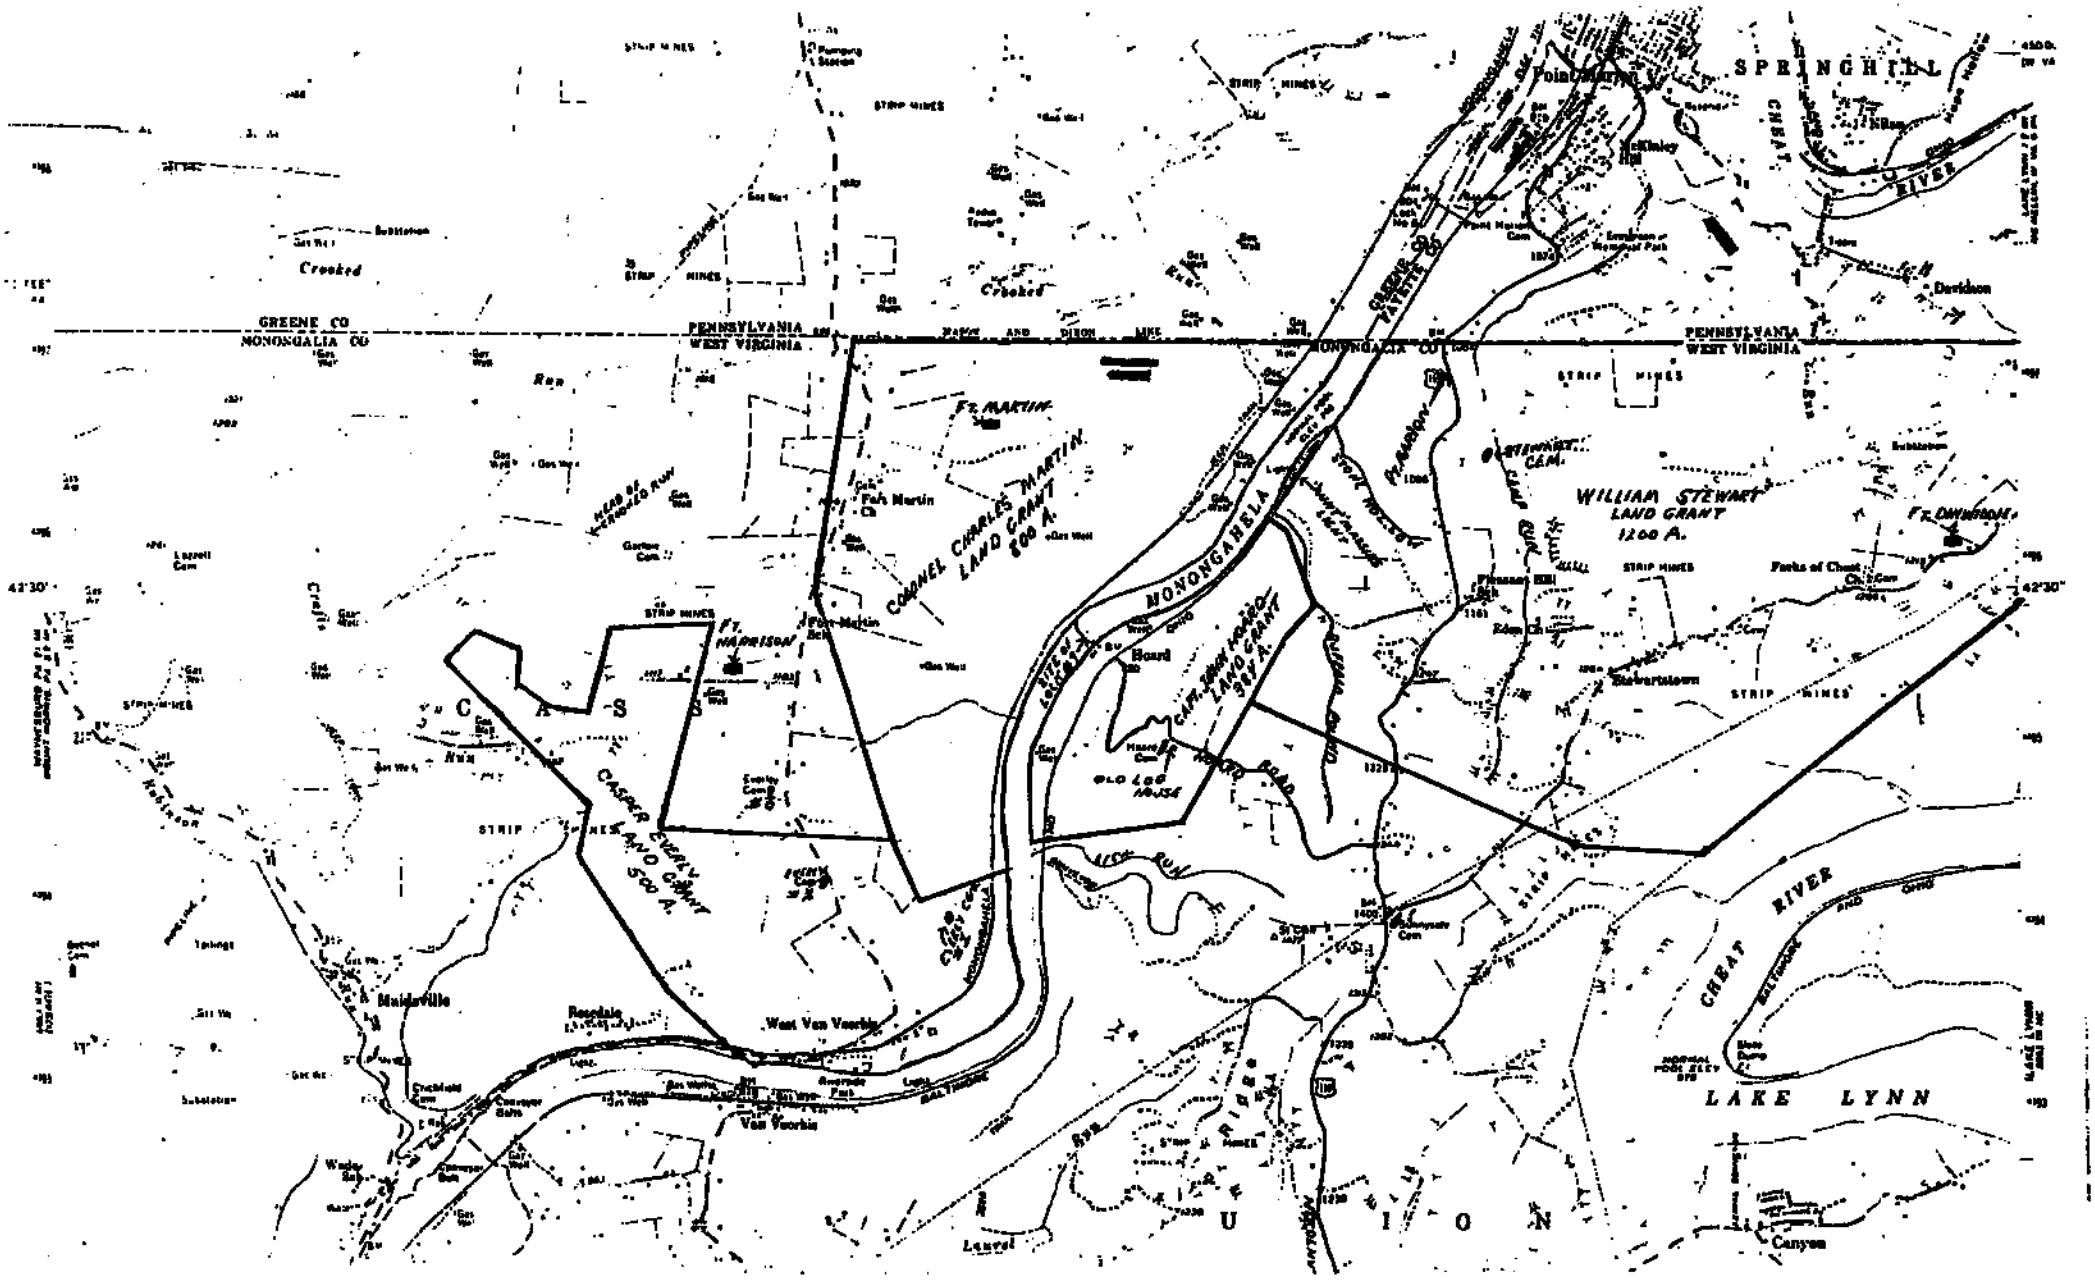

Casper Everly reared four sons, namely, Major Simeon, Captain Samuel, Jesse, William. * No trace can be found of any daughters born to this union.

Major Simeon was courteous and well read and always ready to impart any knowledge he possessed. The following is taken from the Early History of Monongalia County, page 84. "The following list of persons having taxable propety in Monongalia County in 1786 (one year after Morgantown was established) consisted of tithables, horses and cattle, as attested by John Evans, clerk, and J. Pendleton, auditor, was found among the papers of Colonel William McCleary and furnished us by Mr. John J. Brown. Listed under the David Scott return is the name of Major Simeon Everly and 32 other (well known) pioneers."

Major Simeon Everly served as Justice of the Peace in Monongalia County about 1800. He was appointed by the Governor upon recommendation by the County Court. At this time this office was considered a very high honor to bestow upon one. He also served in the Revolutionary War, and was pensioned under an act of Congress of March 18, 1818. His name appears in the History of Monongalia County page 488, with forty-three other pioneer settlers who have became famous in the founding and establishing of the County.

Among them are Zacquil Morgan (Founder of Morgantown) Colonel John Evans (famous in American History) James Scott, Lieutenant John Dent, and others. The following is taken from Monongalia County History, page 519 "In 1807 the one hundred and eighteenth regiment was organized, when James Scott was Colonel, succeeded in 1817 by Rawley Martin. The Lieutenant Colonels were in 1819 Joseph Pickenpaugh; 1823 Jesse Ice; Majors David Scott and Simeon Everly 1816. There were seven companies in this regiment.

Captain Samuel Everly, brother of Major Simeon Everly, was Captain in company number five. We are direct discendants of Captain Samuel Everly. History has not closely followed the footsteps of the other brothers, Jesse and William, but tradition says they moved to what is now Preston County and established homes."

CASPER EVERLY

The earliest recorded ancestor of our family was named CASPER EVERLY. Kentucky family tradition suggests that Casper emigrated to America from Germany, possibly from the region of Hessen-Kassel. From a short history of "The Everly family" by Marguerite Everly John, written about 1928, she suggests that Casper emigrated to America from England. Another source as to the origin of the Everly's, "The History of the Heverly/Everly Family" written by Neal F. Mears (at this time direct relation to those listed in this book has not been established) contends that the Everly's originated in England and migrated thru the low-lands of England into Germany, or into other countries before entering America as the result of political/religious persecution. The search for Casper's homeland continues.

Casper was born about the year 1740, and died ca 1800. Casper's wife SARAH, [Surname unknown], was noted to have been born in Pennsylvania. The date of their marriage is placed about the year 1762. Records indicate that Casper owned at least 600 acres of land in Monongalia County W. VA. He was a veteran of the Revolutionary War, as verified by DAR records. A pension application filed by SIMEON EVERLY, Casper's son, gives Simeon's place of birth as Cumberland County, Maryland in the year 1763. He also states that the family moved to Morgantown, West Virginia when Simeon was about three or four years of age, about the year 1767

WV, and Samuel of KY; as Mrs. Jessie Everly Hinant of Ky noted that family members had corresponded with family of this branch and she stated that Delia was the daughter of Samuel of KY, I have listed Delia accordingly. DAR records dated 1939, appear to question her listing as the dau of Simeon Sr. Noting the age of Prudence at the time of Delia's birth, it seems a little doubtful that she was Delia's mother. See page 86.

EXCERPTS FROM THE PAPERS OF MARGUERITE EVERLY JOHN:

The following is taken from the Early history of Monongalia County page 84. The following list of persons having taxable property in Monongalia County in 1786 (one year after Morgantown was established) consisting of tithables, horses and cattle, as attested by John Evans, Clerk, and J. Pendleton, auditor, was found among the papers of Colonel William McCleary and furnished us by Mr. John J. Brown. Listed under the David Scott return is the name of MAJOR SIMEON EVERLY and 32 other (well known) pioneers." * MAJOR SIMEON EVERLY served as Justice of the Peace in Monongalia County about 1800. He was appointed by the Governor upon recommendation by the County Court. At this time this office was considered a very high honor to bestow upon one. He also served in the Revolutinary War, and was pensioned under the act of Congress of March 18, 1818. His name appears in the History of Monongalia County page 488, with 43 other pioneer settlers who have become famous in the founding and establishing of our County.

The following is taken from Monongalia County History page 519: "In 1807 the one hundred and eighteenth regiment was organized, when James Scott was Colonel, succeeded in 1871 by Rawley Martin. The Lieutenant Colonels were in 1819 Joseph Pickenpaugh; 1823 Jesse Ice; Majors David Scott and SIMEON EVERLY 1816. There were seven companies in the regiment." Captain SAMUEL EVERLY, brother of Major SIMEON EVERLY, was Captain in Company number five. (she also states that family tradition was that their other brothers JESSE AND WILLIAM moved to Preston County and established homes).

EXCERPTS FROM MARTHA L. BELL

Now and Long Ago by Glenn D. Lough, states that Simeon Everly had 400 acres on Buffalo Creek surveyed in 1789.

"SIMEON EVERLY, 400 acres, Assignee of Thomas Godsill, the original settler, left hand fork of Buffalo Creek adjoining Anthony Mahon, 1777." Simeon was only 14 then. This is in present Marion County, W. VA.

Continuation of Mrs. Bell's short history:

Mrs. Bell quotes from the book History of Cloud County, Kansas by Holibaugh, in which there is a sketch on the life of SIMEON OLIVER EVERLY . SIMEON OLIVER, says this of his grandfather, SIMEON EVERLY:

"He was a slaveholder, but to those who desired freedom , it was granted at the age of twenty one years. One day he gave an old slave a new suit of clothes and his freedom. The old slave was delighted at his owners generosity, but after wandering around for a few days, he returned glad to forego the franchise granted and spent the remainder of days in the home of his former master. He (Simeon) was a planter, distiller, and horticulturist. The family lived on a public highway."

Just a few years before their death Simeon and Prudence on the 30th day of September in 1840, for the love and consideration they had for Reason Howard Everly and $250 sold him the homestead on which he now lives. Simeon signed his name and Prudence made her mark.

"Frank Everly of Morgantown, W. VA says there is a tradition in the family that CASPER refused to go to war without SIMEON"

Mrs. Bell notes on the History and Genealogical Record of John Eberly and descendants that that particular writer felt that possibly his family were Mennonites who fled from one country to another because of religious persecution, and finally came to Pennsylvania at the invitation of William Penn.

For future reference from mrs. Bell's papers: She had visited a Mr. Frank M. Everly from Morgantown. His ancestory: Leonard/Leonard Jr/Adam P/Adam/Joseph/Minor Sykes/Frank Morse Everly. End of quotes by Mrs. Bell.

* Writer's comments: In reference to Mrs. John's notations indicating Simeon Sr and Samuel's military rank - I have not seen this in any other documentation.

SIMEON SR/REVOLUTINARY WAR

Pension Application:

On this the 15, day of November 1833 personally appeared before me, David Hoge a Justice of the Peace in and for Monongalia County in the said State of Virginia Simeon Everly a resident of Monongalia County in the State aforesaid, aged 70 years, who being first duly sworn according to law, doth on his oath make the following declaration in order to obtain the benefit of the Act of Congress passed 7th, June 1832.

That he entered the service of the United States under the following named officers, and served as herein stated, that on the 10th day of June 1777, he volunteered in the Virginia Militia as a private and Indian Spy from Monongalia County when 14 years of age under Captain Joseph Neal, Lieutenant and Ensigns names not recollected, Peter P__, Sergeant for a tour of 3 months to defend the North western frontiers of Virginia, that he marched and spied throughout the Counties of Monongalia, Harrison, Lewis, Preston and Randolph in pursuit of the enemy that were nearly daily committing depredations on the western frontiers. That we marched and spied constantly from what was called Martin's Fort, Stradler's Fort on Dunkard's Creek, Burress's Fort near Morgantown, Harrison's Fort, Coburn's Fort on Dunkard's Creek, Monongalia County, and Evans' Fort in the State of Pennsylvania, first and of the Virginia line and through the before mentioned scope of country until the 10th of September following at which time I was discharged by Captain Neal.

That I was not in any battles or skirmishes during said tour, but recollect distinctly of the Indians coming on Dunkard's Creek, a branch of the West Fork of the Monongalia River just before I volunteered to pursue them, and killed and drove off the most of the whites there settled, two men by the name of Wade and Robbins were killed.

In this tour, I saw Col. Martin who was our Commandant. That on the 6th day of June 1777, he volunteered in the Virginia Militia as a private under Capt. Ferrell, Lieutenants names not recollected, M ____ Ensign, and marched from Monongalia County, Virginia to Little Yok where we met Col. Clarke and was attached to his regiment, lay there a few days and from thence we marched to the mouth of Shirter that empties into the Ohio River, at which place some Indians lay in ambush, fired on us and killed three of Col. Clarke's men, from thence we marched to Wheeling Fort still town down on the Ohio River, lay there several days making preparation to march on against the enemy, there saw Col. Morgan, Major Lowther, Capt. George Jackson, and other officers, names not recollected, we there took water and descended the Ohio river to the mouth of of Limestone just above the falls of the Ohio, we there took land and reconnoitered the country and forted where Louisville in Kentucky is now situated, that I was there taken sick and lay there for about four weeks with fever and _____, Col Clark and most of the army went on, from there I marched to Harrod's station, on my way there I fell in with Col. Zach. Morgan, Capt. George Jackson and other officers, but have forgotten their names. From there we retreated to Dick's River in Kentucky, lay there for some time and on the __ day of December 1779 was discharged.

That we then proceeded homeward, that when we were within about 7 miles of Powell's Station night overtook us, we kindled up a fire and lay down, about midnight we were aroused from our sleep by the firing of guns by the Indians. Several of our men were killed and wounded, disagreeable and cold as the weather was, those that could travel were bound to leave and seek shelter elsewhere. From there we marched on undisturbed and on the ___ day of April following I arrived home in Monongalia County.

In this tour, I volunteered for six months, but from the time I left home till my return, was 9 months, making in all 9 months, provided the time I [spent] in returning home is not reckoned, but if included makes 12 months. That he was born in Cumberland County in the State of Maryland on the 15th day of October 1760. When about 3 or 4 years of age, his father moved from there to Virginia in Monongalia County where he has resided ever since. That at the end of each tour he took, he was discharged by his Captain, but those discharges are now lost or mislaid, that he knows of no person now living by whom he can prove his services. He hereby relinquishes every claim whatsoever to a pension or annuity except the present, and declares that his name is not on the pension roll of the Agency of any State. Sworn to, and subscribed the day and year aforesaid. (signed Simeon Everly)

I, the said David Hoge, Justice of the peace, as aforesaid, propounded to the applicant these several interogatories prescribed by the War Department to which he answered as follows, to the....:
1st. That he was born in Cumberland County in the State of Maryland on the 15th of October 1763

2nd. That he has a record of his age taken from his father's record of his children's ages, which he now has.

3rd. When called into service, he was living in Monongalia County Virginia, that he lived there during the Revolutionary War, and has lived there ever since;

4th. I was a volunteer each time.

5th. Col. Martin, Col. Morgan, Col. Clarke, Major Lowther, Capt. George Jackson, I recollect seeing, I saw other officers, their names, I do not now recollect. The circumstances of my services, I have already given in the foregoing declaration.

6th. I received a discharge from my Captain each tour, but what has become of them, I am unable to say, they are lost or mislaid.

7th. Richard Harrison and Calvin Harrison in my neighborhood, can testify to my character for validity, and their belief of my services as a soldier of the Revolution.

EVERLY — KENTUCKY

The descendants of Casper Everly, apparently entered Kentucky between the years 1799 and 1806. Proven descendants at this time were Jesse, son of Casper; Simeon Jr. son of Simeon Sr.; Samuel son of Simeon Sr. A William Everly, shown on the 1810 census for Muhlenberg County was between the ages of twenty-six and forty-five years of age, quite possibly also the son of Casper/ brother of Jesse. The following Everly's were also recorded in Kentucky, but a relationship has not yet been established. Tax Records 1800, shows a Jacob and John Everly residing in Mercer County; 1810 census records for Mercer County: Henry Everly aged 26-45, wife aged 26-45, 3 daughters; Jacob aged 45/over; John aged 45/over, wife 45/over, 4 sons, 3 daughters.

Although I was unsuccessful in finding the reason for the Everly's relocation in Kentucky, I did note some possibilities. A land transaction in Kentucky (160 acres, 12/3/1799) by Jesse Everly, son of Casper, was about six years before Jesse actually took up residence, and about one year prior to his father's will being probated [12/1800 Jesse inherited 150 acres]. Noting that Kentucky was originally a part of Fincastle Virginia, and after consulting the book The History of Muhlenberg County, by Otto A. Rothert, the following is directed toward the early settlers of Muhlenberg Co: " Local traditions and records show that among these newcomers were some German - Virginians who, as early as 1784 or before located in the country to part of which later became the northern section of Muhlenberg County . . . A large portion of Virginia's military grants lay in Kentucky south of the Green River. A number of the first comers and other pioneers, consequently, were people who were to take possession of the military lands granted to them or to their fathers." There is the possibility I believe, that the land in Kentucky was originally owned by Casper as a land grant; this is only speculation.

The establishment of family lines in Kentucky was in great part the result of family members who were willing to share their time and knowledge of the family roots with me. Mrs. Jessie (Everly) Hinant's (page 56), lineage charts which she probably recorded in the 1920's, were invaluable in establishing some of the family lines; access to Jessie's papers, courtesy of Lee Timmons Searcy.

The past three years of my spare time has been spent in Frankfort's archives, library's, and Historical society, reading reels and reels of census, deeds, wills, marriages, birth/deaths records on microfilm and in books; sending/receiving letters; checking/rechecking facts; uncountable hours on the computer writing/rewriting to add/subtract data. This venture has been expensive and at times very frustrating, even so I regret that I have been unable to take the family back further than Casper.

 Deed book 8, pg 386 [1835], mention is made of "Mead's Military Line"; Deed book 12 pg 430 [1846] gives part of boundaries as Francis Means Military line, and Uriah Springer's Military Line.

JESSE EVERLY [Casper]

6. JESSE EVERLY b. ____ d. 11/10/1842 m. Catherine West b. PA 1784-1869. From the Biographic Sketch - Kentucky, 1885, by Battle, Perrin and Kniffin, an article on Dr. Nathan Harry Everly, states that Jesse and Catherine came to Kentucky about the year 1806. This date would appear to be correct as census records indicate that three of Jesse's children were born in Virginia; however deeds dating back to 1799 show land transactions by Jesse Everly. This is indicative that Jesse either made trips into Kentucky for the purpose of purchasing land prior to his relocation, or that another family member named Jesse preceded him, see Jesse's land transactions. Without substantiating documentation, it is impossible to draw a conclusion as to what actually transpired.

Jesse chose to settle near Green River, a one time busy water-way. This area resembles to a great extent, Monongalia County Virginia, his original home. This parallel is drawn from the fact that the land his father, Casper owned, sets amid rolling hills, and is bordered in part by the Monongahela River. It is not known why Jesse chose to move his young family from Virginia into Kentucky, especially since he had heired 150 acres of land from his father Casper in December 1800 (see Casper's will page 2). There is the remote possibility that this land was located in Kentucky for the following reasons: 1. Virginia claimed Kentucky as part of the charter grant, until Congress declared Kentucky a state in 1792. 2) Casper was noted to have served in the Revolutionary War 3) Land grants in Kentucky were given to Virginia veterans of the Revolutionary War in 1784. Another possibility for Jesse's decision to migrate to this area is that * after the settlement called Pond Station was built in 1790, Henry Rhodes induced German-Americans to settle in that area and other sections of the county; this article does not state if there was some type of incentive deal offered to entice this particular group of people.

Jesse is the earliest verified member of our particular line to migrate from Monongalia, VA to Kentucky. As previously noted a William Everly was also listed on the 1810 Muhlenberg census. Jesse had a brother, named William whose history cannot be located in W. VA. William may have accompanied Jesse to Kentucky. The only other reference found on William in Muhlenberg is that he married a Polly Bates on March 26, 1815, he does not appear on the 1820 census so it is not known whether he died or left the area. A William appears on the 1830 census in Gerrard County and does not appear thereafter.

Elizabeth, Jesse's daughter, married his nephew Simeon Jr, lineage page 52. Jesse is the G/G/G Grandfather of the EVERLY BROTHERS. Jesse and Catherine (West) Everly are buried in an Everly cemetary in Island, Kentucky. Their children are listed on following page.

6-3 DR. NATHANIEL EVERLY Dr. of Physics "Uncle Doc" b. VA, 1803 d. 10/1890. Nathaniel never married, but reportedly fathered 8 children by the same lady. There is an error in recording on the census records as 1850 shows Nathaniel to be 38 years old, and the 1860, 1870 indicate that he would have been born about the year 1803. One might question the credibility of "Uncle Doc" after carefully reading his Will on page 48, and the deed on the following page which contradicts a legal claim he filed after the death of Dr. Nathan Harry Everly; as neither of the two are here to defend this claim, then it is left to the reader to draw their own conclusion.

Milly is not verified at this time as the daughter of Jesse, however the 1810 census indicates that Jesse had a daughter born before the year 1810, and apparently died before his will was drawn in 1842. Milly is buried in the Everly cemetary in close proximity to Jesse, Catherine and infant son Jesse.

ISAAC MILFORD EVERLY, JR

LINEAGE: CASPER/JESSE/SIMEON SR KY/JESSE/ISAAC SR/ISSAC JR:
IV. ISSAC MILFORD "IKE" EVERLY, JR, son of Issac Sr of Kentucky, was born 1908 died October 22, 1975. Isaac Jr. married in 1935 to Margaret Embry in 1935. Margaret, born 1919, was the daughter of L.A. and Eva Embry.

Ike, as he was known by family, friends and fans, not only has the distinction of being the father of the "Everly Brothers", but was himself well- known in Western Kentucky and other states as a talented musician.

During the years prior to the advent of television, many young men gathered together to "pick and sing". This event in that era of time, in addition to the Radio, was a major source of entertainment. Family reunions, corn husking time, and weddings were enlivened by the spontaneity of family bands featuring many unlikely instruments such as spoons, singing saws and other ingenuous household articles.

Most Saturday nights were spent on the family's porch or in living rooms honing these talents in subtle competition with one another; thus resulting in some musicians becoming very proficient in this skill. This is evidenced by the notoriety of * Merle Travis, Mose Rager, Lester English who were contemporaries of Ike Everly.

Ike, along with his brothers Leonard and Charlie, were among those who were fortunate to possess natural musical abilities, and they are referred to as the * "Original Everly Brothers". During the 1930's, Leonard and Charlie were in the band of Kennedy Jones named, "Kennedy Jones and his Toe Ticklers," which aired on WOMI radio station, Owensboro, KY. Ike had his own Radio show on  KMA radio in Shenandoah Iowa, where youngsters Don and Phil made their entry into the professional entertainment business.

Phil Everly, as quoted in the TIME MAGAZINE, March 17, 1986, paid this tribute to his father Ike. "A truly unrecognized genius. He taught us everything we know, how to play and how to sing". An album by Don and Phil, released in 1958 was titled, "SONGS OUR DADDY TAUGHT US". Ike has left his God-given talents as a legacy to his children.

EVERLY BROTHERS

LINEAGE: CASPER/JESSE/SIMEON SEN/JESSE/ISAAC MILFORD SR/ISAAC MILFORD JR/DON AND PHIL, THE "EVERLY BROTHERS":

The establishment of the " EVERLY BROTHERS" line was one of the more difficult tasks in the Everly family research. They are the descendants of Jesse Everly, son of Casper. The lineage of the Everly Brothers was not the goal that I had in mind when I began this project, but they are definitely a plus!

Their accomplishments are known world wide. A few of their hit singles were "Bye Bye Love", "Wake up Little Susie", "All I have to Do is Dream", "Claudette", "Bird Dog", "Devoted to You", "Take a message to Mary", "Til I Kissed You", "Let it be me", "When Will I Be Loved", "Cathy's Clown". They have scored more than a hundred hit singles, with 33 top albums.

Don began his career at the tender age of 8, when he made his first appearance on his father's show on KMA radio in Shenandoah Iowa. At nine years of age, he hosted his own 15 minute radio spot.

The boys, though only teenagers, combined their talents in 1955, producing their first hit "Bye Bye Love" about the year 1957. They rode the wave of success until 1973, when the stress from so many years of being on the road, led to a dramatic on stage episode that caused them to part ways. They were reunited at a series of concerts at London's Albert Hall, and are still working together. (I have had the pleasure of seeing them 1985-86 at the Kentucky State Fair, and they gave an excellent performance).

DON and PHIL were inducted into the Rock 'N Roll HALL OF FAME on January 23, 1986, and in September 1986 left their handprint on the sidewalk of Stars in Hollywood.

On a personal note, Ethel Allen of Island, lived "down the road" from Ike Everly Jr. and his parents when she was about 16 years old. She can remember his family having get togethers, to play their guitars and sing.

Pertinent facts establishing family line:

1. Jesse, (son of Casper) in his will dated 1842, refers to one of his sons by the name of Simeon. As there were only two Simeon's in the McLean area at that time, one being his brother, one must surmise that he is referring to the Simeon Sen., who was recorded as living in the next household from Simeon Jr., his brother.

2. Deed (Book D, page 541, McLean County listed below) dated April 6, 1867, names all of Simeon Sen.'s children including Jesse as heirs, and here names Mary Jane as Jesse's wife.

3. 1870 census listed below, gives Jesse, (son of Simeon Sen) as head of household. Isaac Milford Everly Sr., son.

4. Deed, (Book D, pages 143, 144 McLean County) establishes the family lines of Mary Jane Taylor, and that she was indeed wife of Jesse Everly (son of Simeon Sen.)

DEED ABSTRACT, Deed Book No. D, Page 541 - McLean County, KY - Grantor (sellor) JESSE EVERLY and MARY JANE EVERLY his wife - Grantee (buyor) JOHN THOMAS EVERLY. Recorded: April 6, 1867. Location and boundaries: tract on waters of Cypress Creek, of which their father SIMEON EVERLY formerly lived. Amount of acreage: 160 acres by survey. Original owner James Grineers. Other Pertinent facts: and ELIZA M. FRANKLIN, formerly EVERLY; said JESSE EVERLY and ELIZA M. FRANKLIN - children and heirs of SIMEON EVERLY SR. also JOHN THOMAS EVERLY, "their brother". Signatures were by ELIZA ANN FRANKLIN, JESSE EVERLY AND MARY J. EVERLY.

DEED ABSTRACT, Deed Book D, pages 143 and 144 McLean County - relinquishing rights and interest in Estate of WILLIAM BROWN, (deceased); Date July 17, 1865 - which states in part: I, MARY JAME EVERLY of McLean County Ky have this 17th day of July 1865, bargained and sold and conveyed with WILLIAM J. EVERLY, SR etc, my right with and interest in and to my mother MARY ANN TAYLOR interest in her father's (William Brown deceased) undivided estate. - This deed is also signed by her husband JESSE EVERLY. FROM this we have established the family line of MARY JANE EVERLY.

WILL OF NATHAN EVERLY

The following was obtained from the Department of Archives in Frankfort, microfilm. The copies produced were so poor in quality, that it was necessary to use a magnifying glass. The mention of three different Everly's is probably due to misreading because of the faded pages, and Nathan was probably only referring to one Everly member in his accusations. See deed immediately following Will.

I, NATHAN EVERLY, of the County of McLean and State of Kentucky, being now stricken in years and remembering the uncertainty of life, do make this my last will and testament, and hereby make all other wills hereto for by me made, whether written or expressed by word, void; and desire that my estate shall be rendered up in accordance with this will, and not otherwise.

Some years ago, I made a deed to Dr. W.N. Everly? (N.H.?), to a tract of land about one hundred acres, that I got of my father, receipting in said deed that one thousand dollars had been paid to me as the consideration, when in truth and fact, nothing whatsoever had been paid, nor has any sum to this day been paid to me as the consideration of said tract of land [see deed page 50. The only object had in making same, was to have the assistance of N.C.? EVERLY to assist me in procuring a support in my old days. Now, since making the said deed, the said N.H. EVERLY has departed this life, having duly failed to render any assistance to me in procuring land or payment. A suit is now pending in the McLean County Circuit Court, brought by my directions to collect the thousand dollars the consideration stated in said deed, and same of the heirs of said N.H. EVERLY have instituted in same court against me, for the tract, pretended to have been sold by me to their father. Neither of these have been delivered.

Now, I desire that my suit for the collection of the one thousand dollars, be proceeded and the money and interest collected nullifying the time received in pretended sale and purchase of land over the land bequested to me, or my executors herein after named them my said executors, shall pay out of the said fund or parcel out the said land as herein after donated to the parties herein after named as follows:

Item 2. It is my will that my executors shall pay to my brother W.J. EVERLY, in the sum of one dollar, and to surviving child of SIMEON EVERLY, deceased, the sum of one dollar, to be divided between them equally; and to the children of my sister ELIZABETH EVERLY, excluding W.J. EVERLY, in the sum of one dollar to be divided equally, and to all of my relatives more distant than brother or sister, nothing whatsoever is willed, except love and esteem.

CONTINUATION OF WILL OF NATHAN EVERLY:

Item 3rd. Shall said land be recovered, instead of the thousand dollars suit, I then desire that said land be valued by the commissioners, appointed by the county court, and the executors shall pay out to the same heirs, named in item 2nd of this will, the sums ordered to be paid to them, and to be divided among each of my brothers and sisters, or the survivors of them as directed in Item no 2.

Item No 4. It is my will that all of the rest and residue of my property of every description, whatsoever, shall go to my nephews, W. J. EVERLY, JR. AND S.R. EVERLY and their heirs, they agreeing to look after my welfare and support, while I live, and to bury me decently when I die.

Item 5th. I appoint my nephews W. J. EVERLY, JR. AND S. R. EVERLY my executors of my last will and testament with full and necessary authority to carry out the provisions thereof. Witnesseth my hand this 11th day of September 1890. Witnessed by: John Brumley; and Ben J. Drake.

DR. NATHAN / MARY MARTIN

After the death of Amanda McRay on December 15, 1859, Dr. NATHAN HARRY EVERLY next married Mary H. "Molly" Martin b. April 17, 1837 d. January 15, 1906. She was the daughter of HUGH H. and ELIZABETH (ROARK) MARTIN, who were also parents of the colorful *COL. ROBERT MAXWELL MARTIN. Dr. Harry and Molly were married on October 13, 1864.

Dr. Harry's medical/accounting journals profile a different era as evidenced by bartering for medical care with the receipt of chickens, pigs and various other tangible items; medical treatment rendered to slaves; patient charges ranging from .25 to $5.00; dispensing of his own medications; and the travels by horse and buggy to patients homes.

Mary, Dr. Harry's wife was a school teacher. She was a meticulous record keeper, and at least one of her school attendance books is preserved within the family. At the time of Dr. Harry's death, on July 10, 1887, Mary 10 years his junior, was left with a young son. She kept an account of each and every item spent on John Scudder perhaps for inheritance/guardian purposes.

*Colonel Robert Maxwell history pg 319-325 Muhlenberg Co. History; The Partisan Rangers, by General Adam R. Johnson; Morgan's Calvary by Gen. Basil M. Duke; Confederate Operations in Canada and New York, by Capt. John W. Headly. Robert was born 1/10/1840 d. 1/9/1901. Robert served in the Confederate Army; two of his brothers Lt. Templeton B. Martin and Lt. James H. Martin served in the Union army.

As the family story goes, the family called its own truce on special occasions when they all wanted to come home for a visit. Robert was a daring soldier as recounted in the History of Muhlenberg. He and General Johnson with about 25 soldiers spotted a group of Union soldiers on the opposite side of river from where they were located. They (Robert & Johnson) assembled old wagon wheels and axles, stove pipes, and a charred log. From a distance, this appeared to be cannons; the Union soldiers surrendered. See short Martin History page 94.

His death occurred May 1855. He and his wife were members of the Methodist Episcopal Church South.

WILLIAM J. EVERLY received such an education as could be obtained at the old Schools of the time. He was employed on the home farm, remaining with his mother after the death of his father, until he was 33 years of age. He then bought a part of the old homestead farm, upon which he resided for some 12 years.

In January, 1872, he moved on to a farm of some 200 acres near Point Pleasant, Ohio, County which he had bought the year before. Here he has been extensively engaged in agricultural pursuits.

He was married March 15, 1860 to Nancy L. Bennett, also a native of McLean County Kentucky. Five children, 3 sons and 2 daughters have blessed their union, all of whom are living. Mr. Everly and wife are members of the Methodist Episcopal Church South. For politics, he is a Republican.

Fogle's papers: A History of Ohio County, Kentucky, by McDowell A. Fogle - pages 173, 174:

Today, I again quote herein as follows, by consent and with thanks, additional parts of the reminiscenses of the late Mike Moore, "The Jolly Irishman," published in 1951 in Landon Wills McLean County News.:

"I will now relate a little incident that took place in the summer of this year (1861) . . . A report became current that the rebels, with * JAKE BENNETT, the guerrilla chief, were going to burn the town of Livermore, kill the home guards and take Captain Belt and First Lieutenant Hackett prisoners . . . The news came so suddenly and unexpected, the women and children left home and stayed with farmers in the neighborhood that night. About 30 or 40 came to our house, as it was a safe retreat, being off from the public highways. Like Paddy Peace, of the Wild West, I stayed at home that night to protect the ladies.

"However, the town was guarded and, if memory is not at fault, this was the night Colonel McNeil got shot in front of the Livermore Hotel while hurrahing for 'Jeff Davis and the Southern Confederacy'. The reckless daring McNeil and Blasser, 'the tailor,' who at the risk of their lives, marched through the town at the hour of midnight, the full moon shinning . . ., Knowing that the town was heavily guarded, deserved credit in one sense of the word and condemnation on the other for foolhardiness and lack of discretion in time of danger.

"McNeil was severly wounded and taken to the home of John Crow, where he lingered between life and death for several months. In the meantime, Dr. Jess M. Everley, a Union man and a physician and surgeon of the old school, was called in to prescribe for the patient, as a last resort; the other doctors having given him up for death.

"The patient's true bitterness was wrung from now in the hysterical fiercenes of his tones, displayed when he said he would "die and go to h__" before he would take medicine from a "Lincolnite doctor". This epitaph , spoken in sarcasm was unjustly applied to the doctor, who was as much opposed to the abolition of slavery as I was.

"The doctor told him that personally he held nothing against him; politically they were unfortunately divided, but if he would take his medicine, he thought he could restore him to health again in a few months. The pleadings of wife and mother, together with Mr. Crow's influence, prevailed, and, true to his promise, Dr. Everley paid him daily visits until his wounds healed. After a few months McNeil joined his comrades in the Confederate Army and was soon discharged for disability by reason of his wounds."

* NOTE: Interchangeable spelling of Everly/Everley. The original spelling on old documents such as Casper's Will, and Simeon Sr's application for Pension (Revolutionary War), is EVERLY (both are probably anglicized spellings). The cemetaries my family and I visited in Monongalia Co WV gave both spellings. The Everly's of Ohio County, are the only known branch of our family (KY) to use the spelling of Everley, however this spelling has appeared in other states. It has been noted by some family members that the spelling was changed due to the fact that first names were so commonly given to the children, that mail and other personal property was often confused, hence - the change in spelling of the Surname.

HISTORY OF KENTUCKY, by Kerr, page 635 - Archives, Frankfort, KY

DR. GEORGE L. EVERLY, M.D. Twenty-five years of continuous work in his profession as a physician and surgeon in Ohio County has brought Doctor Everly a position of prominence and secure esteem. In his chosen vocation he followed in the footsteps of his honored father, whose life was of genuine service and high attainments in the field of medicine and surgery, and father and son have been factors in the medical history of Ohio County for considerably more than half a century.

George L. Everly was born in Ohio County November 10, 1862. His grandfather was a life long resident and farmer of McLean County, son of a pioneer settler from Virginia. Dr. J. M. Everly was born in McLean County in 1837, was reared and acquired his early education in that locality, and was a graduate of the Eclectic Medical College of Cincinnati. He was still a young man when he located in Ohio County, and he continued his work as a physician at Ceralvo practically until the close of his life.

He died in August, 1911. He had the qualities of mind and character that made him an exemplary physician and surgeon, widely known over his section of the state for his success in practice, and was greatly beloved by the community which he served so many years. Always a busy man, he was, nevertheless, active in local affairs, was postmaster at Ceralvo a number of years, also owned and operated a drug store there, was a democrat in politics, a very loyal member of the Methodist Episcopal Church and was a Royall Arch Mason. Dr. J. M. Everly married Susan Mary Kimbley, who was born in Ohio County in 1842 and died at Ceralvo in 1920. Of her large family of children Dr. George Everly is the oldest and the only one to take up his father's profession . . ."

NEWSPAPER ARTICLE, OHIO COUNTY, KY- Date unknown, after 1955: Source, Historical Society - Frankfort, "FOUR GENERATIONS OF EVERLEYS ARE ACTIVE IN MEDICAL FIELD .", by Harry D. Tinsley

Perhaps no Ohio County family has given as many members to the medical profession than has the Everley family. The first in this four generation family of physicians, surgeons and pharmacists was JESSE M. EVERLEY, who was born in 1837, in what is now McLean County, but then Ohio County, where he was reared and acquired his early education. A graduate of the Electic Medical College, Cincinnati, Ohio, he was still a young man when he located at Ceralvo in this county where he practiced medicine and surgery until practically the end of his life which was in August 1911.

Always a busy man, he was nevertheless, active in local affairs, was postmaster at Ceralvo a number of years, also owned and operated a drug store and grocery store there. He was a Democrat in politics and was a very loyal member of the Methodist church and a Royal Arch Mason. Dr. Everley married SUSAN MARY KIMBLEY, who was born in Ohio County in 1842 and died at Ceralvo in 1920. Of their nine children, George L. was the oldest and the only one to take up his father's profession. However, they all became prominent in business.

CONTINUATION OF NEWSPAPER ARTICLE, RE: EVERLEY'S:

GEORGE L. EVERLEY was born November 10, 1862, in Ohio County, spent his early life at Ceralvo and later entered his father's school, Electic Medical College. In 1893 he graduated from the University of Louisville Medical School, and in the same year took up the practice at Ceralvo. He remained in that community until 1911 when he moved to Rockport, where he led a busy life as a general practitioner and surgeon. He succumbed to a heart attack August 22, 1942, in his 80th year. Dr. Everley was a Democrat, a member of the Ceralvo Methodist Church, a member of Ceralvo Masonic Lodge, Rockport Odd Fellows Lodge and Rockport Red Men Tribe.

In 1896 he married MISS CLEMMIE PARK, daughter of William Park. She died at Rockport in October 1911, and was the mother of four children namely; Hazel, who with her husband, GEORGE R. HURST, have been Presbyterian missionaries in Brazil, South America for over 30 years; GLADYS, wife of Homer Boyd, Rockport postmaster; JESSE LEVI and ADDISON PARK, the latter having been a drugist in Springfield, Ill., until his death, January 5, 1956.

JESSE L. EVERLEY, after completing his early education at Rockport, and graduating from Central Park high school, McHenry, entered the University of Louisville College of Pharmacy from which he graduated in 1924.

Before coming to Hartford in 1943, Mr. Everley was in charge of drug stores at Rockport, Tell City, IND, Owensboro, Tompkinsville and Bowling Green. He purchased King's Drug Store here and after operating it for ten years, bought and completely remodeled the building which is now Spinks' Pharmacy, making it one of the most modern drug stores in Western Kentucky, to which he moved his drug stock.

Mr. Everley, born April 3, 1901, married the former BLANCHE KIMMEL, of Muhlenberg County who now resides in Hartford. He died of a heart attack July 2, 1955. He was a member of the Hartford Methodist Church and was a Mason.

CLEMMIE FRANCIS EVERLEY, M.D., constitutes the present generation in the medical profession.

A native of Rockport, and the only child of Jesse L. and Blanche Everley, she went to Houston, Texas in 1955 to serve 4 years internship at Jefferson Davis Hospital. A 1946 graduate of Hartford high school, she graduated from Ward Belmont Junior College, Nashville, In 1950 she was awarded her B.S. degee from Western State College, Bowling Green. Waiting a year before entering medical school, she was a member of the 1955 graduating class of the University Louisville School of Medicine.

9. REASON HOWARD "UNCLE JAKE" EVERLY b. 7/6/1841 d. 9/22/1912 m. 1) _____? m. 2) 1/21/1875, Sallie M. Simmons b. 10/23/1857 d. 12/1/1933. Due to the fact that Reason was known by the nickname of "Uncle Jake", his hisory was very difficult to establish. However, through census records, an Affidavit of Descent Deed Book 137, page 484 Muhlenberg Co. 1934 for Jake Everly listing all of Reason's children, and finally the location of burial (Equality Cemetary Ohio County KY) giving same birth/death dates for Reason as noted on Jake's Affidavit of Descent, there is no doubt they are one and the same person. One family member stated that "Jake" was a half-brother to Simeon Jr's children; there is no validation of this statement at this time.

SAMUEL EVERLY OF KY

LINEAGE: CASPER/SIMEON SR/SAMUEL:

1. SAMUEL EVERLY, the son of Simeon Everly, Sr., and brother of Simeon Jr. was born April 16, 1795 in Monongalia County West Virginia. Samuel married Rettilla Bright on March 15, 1817. Rettilla was born the year 1797 and died February 13, 1850; she was the daughter of Elkanoh Bright.

Samuel and Rettilla came to Kentucky apparently after the year 1848 as all children were either born in Virginia or Pennsylvania; the last recorded being Rennick Everly, born in Virginia 1848; reference, 1850 census KY. Further evidence as to the approximate year Samuel and his family made their journey westward, is that Samuel and Reason Howard (nephews of Samuel VA) were witnesses to Samuel's will in Virginia in 1842. Samuel and Rettilla are buried in an Everly cemetary about 1 1/2 miles from Island, KY in McLean County. The exact date of Samuel's death can not be determined from the tombstone, as it has broken from age.

There has been some confusion between Samuel (KY) and his Uncle Samuel's (KY) children. After closer examination of records, it is easily understood how such an error could occur. Samuel of Virginia, lived in same time frame as Samuel of KY; he married three times; fathered last children after the age 70. His will does not list the children previously thought to have belonged to him, and are credited to Samuel (KY) by * Jesse Hinant. In all probablity, this error occurred due to the fact that these children were already grown and married when Samuel and Rettilla settled in Kentucky. The only real clue we have is the fact that * Jessie Everly Hinant indicated in her brief recording of the Everly family, that she knew family members who had corresponded with the descendants of Samuel's (Ky) children in Virginia and other states.

The children in question are: Delia Ann, Nancy, Elizabeth, and Harriet; there is no indicaton that they ever lived in Kentucky. Children also noted to have been Samuel's (KY) were: Jeff Keysler, and Agnes Bright, who may have also remained in Virginia. Without solid documentation, and the possibility of recording errors, the children attributed to Samuel noted above may be considered conjectural at this point.

* Jessie Everly Hinant, (pg. 55) compiled brief lineage charts on Everly's of VA/Ky in the 1920's. She referred to Casper as a Hessian soldier from Hesse Kassel Germany; received payment as a soldier from Britain, a parcel of land, part of which was in Pa/VA. Unless Hessian Soldiers were used in the French/Indian War, he would not have been a Hessian Soldier Revolutionary war as he is shown already in America in 1755, page 6. Jessie noted that Everly history could be found pg 85, "History of Monongalia County VA."

THE MARTIN FAMILY

As the result of research in 1932 by Mrs. Zilpah Morehead Griffin on the HUGH MARTIN family of Muhlenberg County, Kentucky it was learned that Hugh I, and his family resided in Augusta County Virginia prior to HUGH MARTIN'S II migration into Kentucky. Mrs. Moreheads data is documented in DAR #277560; however, according to old handwritten records of births, deaths and marriages in my possession, it would appear that there are some errors in recording in her notes. One of Mrs. Morehead reference's was Lyman Chalkey's SCOTCH IRISH SETTLEMENT IN (AUGUSTA CO) VIRGINIA 1745-1800; this is a three volume book, and is very interesting as it shows documentation of another era.

If all of the Hugh Martins that are mentioned in Chalkey's Augusta County, are in fact from the same family line, it would be very likely that there were three generations noted. Example: Hugh Martin I died May 21, 1766. Hugh Martin II, or Sr. of Kentucky was born 1755 [family records]. A land purchase by Hugh was made in 1769; Hugh II would have only been 14 years old. Hugh Martin was said to have served in the French and Indian War 1755-1759; Hugh I was to old, and Hugh II was just a tot. Also, if Hugh I was "Old and Decrepted" 1752, he would surely have been born in the late 1600's, a long distance for two more generations if Hugh was born in 1755. In an effort to preserve this history for future generations, this documentation is listed below.

The first entry pertaining to Hugh was in 1745; America was still under the rule of the King of England, some 30 years before the Revolutionary War.
